

SNARL

Spring 2007 Lecture Series

The Third Annual Reserve Lecture in Conservation & Ecology
Sponsored by the Valentine Reserve Fund

Sierra Nevada Aquatic Research Lab

Natural Reserve System
University of California
Santa Barbara

- May 2      The Legacy of Joseph Grinnell: The Future of California's Vertebrate Fauna Based on Surveys of the Past
Dr. James Patton, Curator of Mammals, Museum of Vertebrate Zoology, Professor Emeritus, Department of integrative Biology, UC Berkeley
- May 16     Hidden Biodiversity in Sierra Nevada Lakes and Ponds
Dr. Roland Knapp, Aquatic Biologist, SNARL, UC Santa Barbara
- May 30     Recent findings on CO2 Emissions at Mammoth Mountain
Chris Farrar, US Geological Survey
- June 13    LADWP'S Watershed Management: Mono Basin to Owens Lake
Dave Martin, Plant Ecologist, LADWP
- June 27    The Quicksilver Ceiling: A Video Voyage into the World of Trout Prey
Ralph Cutter. Author, Videographer, Co-owner of California School of Fly-fishing
- July 11     Science and Health Issues of Wireless Technologies: Wellness or Wi-Fi?
Cindy Sage, MA, Owner, Sage Associates
- July 25     Walker Lake and Other Imperiled Salt Lakes of the World
Dr. Robert Jellison, Limnologist, SNARL, UC Santa Barbara

7 PM Wednesday evenings at the Green Church (Hwy. 395 and Benton Crossing Rd.)
Admission is free and the public is invited.

Lectures last approximately one hour. For more information call Leslie Dawson at 935-4356 or email ldawson@msi.ucsb.edu.